

Malawi Resilience and Disaster Risk Management Project

2017 - 2025

World Bank

Malawi

NATURE BASED SOLUTIONS

watershed management, forests

The Malawi Resilience and Disaster Risk Management Project aims to strengthen disaster risk management (DRM) systems, build resilience among vulnerable communities, and support disaster preparedness and recovery efforts. Key components include resilient infrastructure, risk reduction initiatives, and capacity building to enhance disaster response effectiveness.

LEARN MORE

<https://projects.worldbank.org/en/projects-operations/project-detail/P161392>

INTERVENTION

Green

HAZARD

urban flooding
drought

SCALE

National

RISK REDUCTION BENEFITS

reduce flood risk, erosion control and slope stabilization

DONORS

ida

EST. MONETARY COST

(TODAY'S US$)

34
